OPERATORS' PROFITS TO BEAR WAGE RAISE

Says Attorney General Palmer, If Reports of Size of Profits On Coal Prove True

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Nov. 25—President Wilson's cabinet was expected to reach a decision today on the wage controversy between the bituminous coal miners and operators that would send the miners back to work. Before entering the meeting Attorney General Palmer said if reports of the operators' profits are true it is unlikely Fuel Administrator Garfield will permit an increased coal price. He intimated that any wage advance would have to come out of the operators' profits. The operators and miners spent two hours in conference today without breaking the deadlock as to wages.

CONFERENCE AT BEREA POSTPONED

The National Conference on Rural Education, scheduled to be conducted at Berea College December 25th, has been cancelled owing to conflicting dates. The conference was to have been given under the auspices of the National Board of Education. It is understood the conference may be held in Berea in January.

MEXICANS STILL DALLYING

Lansing Has Not Yet Received Reply On Jenkins Case

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Nov. 25—Secretary Lansing went into the cabinet meeting today without the reply to the American note demanding the immediate release of William O. Jenkins, American Consular Agent at Puebla, and warning the Mexican government further molestation of Jenkins will seriously affect the relations between the United States and Mexico. Mexican failure to promptly answer has apparently created an unfavorable impression in official circles.

At the conclusion of the cabinet meeting Secretary Lansing said no conclusion had been reached. Both the Jenkins case and general conditions in the Southern Republic were discussed, Lansing said.

CAN YOU BEAT IT?

Frankfort, Ky., November 25—While Daniel Schittinger, of this city, discharged from the navy after two years' service was standing on the wharf at Riga, Russia, a woman rushed through the crowd and asked him to mail a letter for her when he returned to America.

He never had seen the woman before and she had not seen him, as the cruiser on which he had entered Riga had arrived at the port only an hour before the incident.

When Schittinger looked at the letter he found it was addressed to "I. Rosenstein, Frankfort, Ky., U. S. A." and he told the woman through an interpreter that he was a resident of Frankfort.

The woman proved to be the sister of Mrs. Wolf Rosenstein, of this city, and Schittinger delivered the letter to her to-day.

ALVIS BENNETT GETS HIS

Alvis S. Bennett, Secretary of the Republican State Central Committee will be named as one of the members of the Workmen's Compensation Board. There are two other places on the board, but thus far Governor-elect Edwin P. Morrow has not indicated his intentions regarding the appointments. Mr. Bennett has been Secretary of the State Committee for years. He formerly was a member of the Legislature, serving as State Senator from Ohio County. He is a native of Hartford.

Tench the children to know about Rockwood, and they'll always know good Coffee and how to call for it. D. B. McKinney & Co., Richmond. 304-3

LOST—A large envelope containing two deeds; $10 reward for return to Dan H. Breck, Richmond.

304-3

FOUND—An army overcoat, on Main street; name inside coat; Lorain R. Grahm. Call at this office and pay for ad.

304-3

THE MARKETS

Cincinnati—Hogs 25c lower; Chicago 72,000; 50c lower; cattle steady and slow.

Louisville, Nov. 25—Cattle 400; slow and unchanged; hogs 1,700; mostly 25c lower; tops $13.50; sheep 50; steady and unchanged.

LOCAL OFFICIALS MUST ENFORCE DRY LAWS

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Nov. 25—Enforcement of constitutional prohibition will be placed squarely up to the state and municipal authorities and the federal government's machination will not intervene unless obvious inefficiency on the part of local officials makes such action necessary, the Methodist Episcopal church temperance board was told here today by John F. Kramer, Federal Prohibition Commissioner. It was Kramer's first pronouncement of policy since he assumed office. Affirming the belief the great mass of the people approve the law, the prohibition chief declared that "that fact will tell mightily in the matter of getting results from the laws."

WAR LOAN'S INTEREST

Won't Be Collected For Three Years Under This Plan

(By Associated Press)

London, Nov. 25—A plan under discussion by the British and American governments under which interest payments on advances of both governments to the Allies during the war and also on advances by the United States to Great Britain will be postponed for three years, it was announced in the House of Commons today.

(By Associated Press)

LABOR PARTY BORN

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, Nov. 25—Organization of the Labor party of the United States was practically completed at the First National Convention here today. Robert M. Buck, of Chicago, won his fight for equal representation for women on the national committee of the party. It will be composed of one man, and one woman elected by the membership of each state. The members are asked to donate one hour's pay to finance the organization. John H. Walker, of Illinois, predicted the party will have a membership of several million within a year. The convention expects to adjourn tonight.

SANT BUSH GOES AFTER SHREWSBERRY

Young Man Wires Home Seeking To Get Release From Florida Officials

Deputy Sheriff Sant Bush took a train for Florida shortly after noon Tuesday to bring back Chas. Shrewsberry, the Madison young man who left home mysteriously several weeks ago, and whose whereabouts were learned when he sought to get a passport at Key West. Upon request of his parents, he was arrested by officials at Key West and held until a local officer could go after him.

Shrewsberry wired to his wife here Monday, after he had been arrested at Key West, that if she would telegraph the officers there to release him that he would immediately return home. It is understood that Mrs. Shrewsberry did not wire the officers at Key West in view of the fact that Deputy Sheriff Bush had made all arrangements to go after her husband.

JACKSON COUNTY MAN BUYS NORRIS FARM

Several big farm deals are said to be brewing this week, and Madison county real estate is still quite active. L. P. Evans, local real estate dealer, sold the John Norris farm on the Concord road, that John S. Long bought to Wm. Bowles of Jackson county. The price Mr. Bowles paid is understood to have been around $150 an acre. The place contains 1 1/2 acres. The new owner gets possession Jan. 1st, next.

Deeds for sale or transfer of farm lands and town lots filed in the office of County Clerk J. W. Maupin since last report are as follows:

R. D. Davis to S. C. Steely, 335 1-10 acres for $1 (50 stamps). Nancy M. Chenau to John B. Norris, 179.25 acres for $26,349.25.

TOWN LOT TRANSFERS

Elizabeth A. Hanger to Addie Steele Zaring, lot in Richmond $8,000.

Hardin Golden to Dean & Herndon, lot in Berea, $2250.

Minerva Parrish to E. Deatherage, lot in Richmond, $650.

W. C. Taylor to A. C. Towey, lot in Berea, $750.

J. L. Ambrose to Frank Ambrose, lot in Berea, $725.

NAT ELLIOTT GETS IT

Senator A. O. Stanley nominated Nat M. Elliott, of London, to be Census Supervisor of the Eleventh Kentucky District to succeed J. N. Meadows, of Jamestown, Ky., who died recently. The Census Bureau gave to Senator Stanley the privilege of naming a man for the vacancy. Elliott was Democratic candidate for Congress in that district in the last congressional election and was defeated.

WACO BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday morning, Nov. 30, Sunday school at 9:30; prayer services at 10:30. At 11:30 Prof. J. D. Bruner of Eastern Kentucky State Normal school will make an address on the campaign. Sunday afternoon the Team Captains, and solicitors, and others who desire, will meet at the church in another prayer service before visiting the membership of the church. Every member of the church is asked to remain at home from 2 p. m. to 6 p. m.

Bavarian Catholics Displeased

(By Associated Press)

Munich, Nov. 25—Archbishop Faulhaber declared at a meeting of Bavarian Catholics that the German government, by separating church and state, was undermining all state authority. He said amid great applause that every believer had the right to refuse to take the tax oath, since by taking it believers were being misled of their last cent while non-believers were not taking the oath.

WESTERN NORMAL GROWS!

With $110,000 in hand, the Trustees have decided to build another girl's dormitory at the Western Normal School at Bowling Green. Owing to the oil boom in Warren county it is impossible to house the students of the Western Normal School in the present dormitory.

FOR SALE—A Moore's Air tight heater; in good condition. Phone 703.

NO PAPER THANKSGIVING

There will be no issue of the Daily Register Thanksgiving Day, following the usual custom among newspapers. The Daily Register office will be open until 12:30 o'clock, with the force at work until that hour. The office will be closed the remainder of the afternoon, to give the very faithful employees of the paper a half holiday. The banks and postoffice will be closed all day and practically all of the business houses in town during the afternoon.

REFORM SCHOOL TERM PLACED OVER LAD

Threw Ammonia Into Playmate's Face But Says He Didn't Know Its Danger

Wallace Smith, 13-year-old son of J. W. Smith, who lives near the ice factory, was given sentence of a year in the reform school at Greendale, by County Judge W. K. Price in Juvenile Court Tuesday morning. The sentence was suspended, however, upon good behavior of the little fellow. Prof. J. A. Kunkle was appointed special probation officer for the lad, and will report to the court his actions in the future.

The Smith youngster threw some ammonia into the eyes of 8-year-old Clark Kearns, son of L. P. Evans, local real estate dealer, sold the John Norris farm on the Concord road, that John S. Long bought to Wm. Bowles of Jackson county. The price Mr. Bowles paid is understood to have been around $150 an acre. The place contains 1 1/2 acres. The new owner gets possession Jan. 1st, next.

TREE HALL OF FAME

Will Include Many Grand Old Giants Of The Forests

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Nov. 25—A "Hall of Fame for Trees" has been inaugurated by the American Forestry Association for the recognition of famous trees and the location of the largest shade tree in the United States.

An elm at Huntington, Indiana, long has been regarded as the largest shade tree in the country. This claim of course excludes the Redwoods of California. Now comes Dumont Kennedy of Crawfordsville, Indiana, with a picture of a tree on his property and the suggestion that it is larger than the tree at Huntington. This tree has a spread of 99 feet while the Huntington Elm has a spread of only 75 feet. A tree at Farmington, Mass., also makes claim to being the largest.

Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Forestry Association says:

"We want a complete list of famous trees now. There is the Liberty Tree on the campus of St. John's College at Annapolis, under which a treaty with the Indians was signed in 1652. The experts tell us this tree is close to 800 years old. We all know of the William Penn Treaty Tree beneath which Washington took command of the continental army. At Oberlin, O., is the elm on the corner of the campus under which was the first log house in which Oberlin College was founded. The American Forestry Association has listed many famous trees but it wants the list complete. If there is a famous tree in your town the Association wants to know about it."

ONEIDA TO RECEIVE $50,000 OF BIG FUND

Baptist 75 Million Campaign Plans To Take Care Of Mountain School Doing A Great Work

The, 75 Million Dollar Campaign which is to be launched by Southern Baptists Nov. 30 to Dec. 7 includes all the missionary educational and benevolent interests fostered by the Southern Baptist Convention. The 75 million dollars will be distributed as follows: Foreign Missions, $20,000,000; Home Missions, $12,000,000; Christian Education, $12,000,000; State Missions, $11,000,000; Hospitals, $2,125,000; National Memorial, $175,000.

In Kentucky $1,400,000 will be devoted to educational purposes. Among institutions to be benefited by the 75 Million Dollar Campaign is Oneida Institute.

Many people in Richmond as well as throughout the state and nation are interested in this splendid little mountain school. The friends of the school will be glad to know that the school is again properly related to the Educational Society of the state so as to come in for her share of the proceeds of this campaign. Oneida Institute for a time lost her standing with the Educational Society because of an oversight the institution failed to nominate trustees and send in their names to be ratified at the annual meeting of the Educational Society. Then during the war so many of the young men were taken away that the school was not able to maintain a high school. Now these defects have all been remedied and the matter finally adjusted.

Rev. O. Olin Green, pastor of the First Baptist church in this city, is chairman of the Board of Trustees of Oneida Institute. He and Mr. Joseph LeCompte, of Lexington, who is also a trustee, made a trip to Oneida to investigate conditions and to get Oneida lined up with the Kentucky Educational Society. They also made a trip to Louisville for a conference with the Society the last of October. The matter was finally decided at a recent meeting of the General Association at Georgetown at which meeting it was decided that Oneida should receive $50,000 from the 75 Million Dollar Campaign.

The institution was founded by Rev. J. A. Burns, 20 years ago and has had a remarkable growth. Mr. Burns has done a great work and is greatly loved by the people of the mountain. Mr. Burns is now lecturing in the west but still remains president. He has made many friends for the school in various parts of the country. Mr. T. L. Adams is the Associate President and acts as the executive head of the school in Mr. Burns' absence. He is a fine business man and runs the school on a good business basis. The school is full and is doing a most excellent work.

However, there are not sufficient funds to keep up the school. Many of the boys and girls are poor and can pay little or nothing for their schooling. It has always been Mr. Burns' desire to make a place for every girl or boy who wanted an education. But many have to be turned away because there is not room for them. The First Baptist church has always been greatly interested in the school. The ladies of the church are sending a box of clothing there this week.

The school needs a large endowment so that it may be able to keep up expenses without falling behind. At present the expenses are about $1,500 per month while the income from all sources is less than $1,000 per month. This works a hardship on the institution and prevents its proper development and usefulness. The school

Was He Off Playing Ping Pong?
Well, just read this. A dispatch from Washington to the Lexington Herald Sunday said: Captain King Swope, the new congressman from the Eighth Kentucky district, made a record in the first session of congress, in which he had a seat. Investigation of the records shows that during the brief time he has been a member of the House, Captain Swope has failed to vote on 57 roll calls. During the time he was a member of the House, there were probably about 65 roll calls, which shows that he was a pretty consistent absentee. In fact, if no special election had been held and the vacancy caused by Congressman Helm's death had not been filled, the Eighth district would have been represented on almost as many roll calls, as it was with Swope drawing the pay.

The Louisville Times says that Senator J. C. Beckham will be given a clear field for democratic renomination next year, which will, of course be not to the liking of a few papers which have been beseeching Congressman Cantrell to run. Beckham well deserves an endorsement at the hands of his party. Next year will see a hard fight in Kentucky, with the republicans flushed by their recent victory. If Beckham, with his magnificent record and host of loyal friends can't win next year, no democrat can, and the outlook for democracy in Kentucky will be mighty blue to the faithful. The republicans never have been able to beat Beckham before the people, and there isn't a doubt that he is stronger than he has ever been before.

R. C. Leffingwell, of New York, is said to have been selected to succeed Carter Glass as secretary of the treasury, by President Wilson. Kentuckians and Kansans had hoped that Jouett Shouse, formerly of Lexington, might land the big job, but he has only recently been named an assistant secretary and had not been in the treasury harness as long as Leffingwell. Shouse scored a strong point when he named his friend Jim Combs, of Lexington, dry enforcement director for Kentucky.

Old H. C. L. will keep many a turkey off many a dinner table Thursday, but it remained for a Columbus, O., turkey dealer to put his turkeys on the installment plan basis, so that everyone might have a bird who wants one. He charged $2 down and the rest in small payments, and figured his birds at 45 to 50 cents a pound.

INK REMEDY FOR BURNS

In Primitive Montenegro But Red Cross Is Helping a Lot

(By Associated Press)
Niegosh, Montenegro, Nov. 23.—American physicians doing relief work in Montenegro tell of some curious methods of treatment employed by the inhabitants of this little mountain country. When a Montenegrin is wounded the first thought of the natives is to apply chewing tobacco, horsehair, or a fresh rabbit skin with the hair facing inside. Common ink is considered a sovereign remedy for burns. To stop bleeding sores or wounds cobwebs are used. When a person is bitten by a dog, the favorite remedy is to pull off the animal's ear and rub the wound with it.

The patron saint of Montenegro is St. Vascilia, whose shrine is situated on the summit of a mountain between Podgoritzia and Niksic. Every week thousands of devout Montenegrins come to this mountain shrine seeking cure for their ills.

But since the arrival of the American physicians the pilgrimages to the ancient shrine have not been so numerous. For the natives have found that their ills can be cured much nearer home and with greater certainty at any of the numerous Red Cross dispensaries and clinics. The inhabitants come from the remotest mountain regions. They are carried in all sorts of conveyances, wheelbarrows, donkey carts, buffalo wagons or on horseback. In one case, an old woman, suffering with scarlet fever, was brought to the Red Cross hospital at Niegosh, which is notable as the birthplace of King Nicholas, in an iron soup pot. It required four days to get her over the many mountain ranges.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Entertained At Luncheon

Mrs. Walter Q. Park entertained at luncheon Sunday in honor of Rev. J. P. Strother, of Danville, the new Presiding Elder of the Methodist church. Those present were: Rev. Dr. Mrs. Strother, Dr. and Mrs. M. T. Chandler, Prof. and Mrs. L. H. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Park, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Park, Mrs. J. P.

Rucker, Mrs. E. K. Horn, and daughter, Mrs. Sanford Oldham, Mrs. Ed Bybee, Misses Mary Arnold Strother, Allie McLeod, Misses Scrivner, and Messrs. Strother and William Holton Park.

Wade—Moberly Wedding
The marriage of Miss Mattie Winifred Moberly, of Richmond, to Ellis Wade, of Clark county, took place in Richmond last week. The wedding was very quiet, only the immediate friends of the couple witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. G. W. Banks, of Winchester. Miss Moberly is the youngest daughter of the late J. G. Moberly, and belongs to one of Montgomery county's most prominent families. She is a young woman of much charm of manner and is very popular with a wide circle of friends. Mr. Wade is a wealthy farmer and is well and everybody is talking inaugural ball and making plans for entertaining guests. But few homes in Frankfort will be without guests on inauguration day and a majority of the visitors will remain over for the ball, which will be given at the State Capitol.

The ladies' reception committee, headed by Mrs. J. C. Bailey, Mrs. Weisiger Lindsey, and Mrs. Anne Montgomery Schoolfield, is making plans for the entertainment of the women who will come for the inaugurations. Among those who will entertain on inauguration day are Dr. and Mrs. John G. South, the latter a cousin of Governor-elect Morrow. The Souths will keep open house on that day.

Delightful Social

Mrs. Robert Elkin entertained Thursday evening for her sister, Miss Neva Hisle, and a number of her classmates, and friends in the 7th and 8th grades, of the Waco school. Miss Mary Bush and Prof. L. H. Mills the teachers, and about fifty of the students were included in the invitation. Delicious refreshments were served during the hours and the social feature of the occasion is to be commended in the schools.

Williams—Williams

Thomas Williams, of Springfield, and Miss Bessie Williams, of this city, were joined in matrimony's bonds at the office of County Judge W. K.

PLEURSY, LUMBAGO AND NEURALGIA

Kills Aches And Pains In Half The Time It Takes Liniments Poultices And Plasters

Begy's Mustarine is used by tens of thousands of people who know that it is the quickest killer of pain on earth.

It's so penetrating and effective that in most cases neuralgia, headache, toothache, earache and backache disappear in 5 to 10 minutes—some statement but it's true.

It will not blister because it's the original substitute for the old reliable mustard plaster and is made of real yellow mustard—no cheap substitutes are used.

Use it to banish rheumatic pains and gout, for sore, inflamed or frosty feet, for chilblains, stiff neck or joints or cramps in legs. It acts instantly and never fails to drive out inflammation in any part of the body.

More people are drinking Dr. Carter's K. & S. Tea than ever before, because they have found that in these days of high prices some of the simplest remedies are best.

Get a package of this purely vegetable tea. Everyone in the family will like it, because it only takes a few days for them to find out that for liver, stomach and bowels and to purify the blood there is nothing surer, safer or better.

Pimply skin and sallow complexion vanish after a few cups, and the little tots just love it, and should always have it, especially when out of sorts and feverish.

More than a dinner

Thanksgiving Day

Thursday, Nov. 27th

It ought to be something more than a date and a dinner; being thankful is a state of mind; more than words or acts. You may go to church; you may stay at home; you may seek recreation or sport; the observance of the day varies with the observer.

But whatever you do on that day, you can be thankful. There are many advantages you enjoy which are grounds of gratitude. You can at least go as far as the old farmer, who said he was going to "Thank God things ain't no wuss'n they be."

But if a man's really thankful; if he's in the right "state of mind," he tries to do what he can to make things "better'n they be." We can all do that.

Our Profit from all Sources

The American Public does not believe all it reads. It insists on being shown.

When Swift & Company says its profits are only a fraction of a cent per pound, many believe we are not telling the whole story—that there are hidden profits.

Here Are The Facts:

Our net profit on our entire business for the year 1918 amounted to only 1.76 cents per dollar of sales, or less than one-half cent per pound, and

1. Included profits from hides and all other by-products.
2. Included profits from all sundry side-lines.
3. Included profits on all subsidiary corporations.
4. To sum up—it included the entire profit from every source of revenue in which Swift & Company has any interest. There are no other profits.

Furthermore our accounts have been checked and certified annually by leading public accounting firms.

Swift & Company is sincerely trying to get the facts before the public. If you have any questions regarding our business—write us—and we will do our best to answer them. In discussing the packing business be sure you have the facts and that you are not unintentionally spreading misinformation.

If you get the facts we have no doubt as to the verdict.

CONGRESS' RECORD ALMOST A BLANK

Washington, D. C. Nov. 22—The special session of the sixtieth Congress has closed with a practically blank record. The House of Representatives spent six months in oratory and useless investigation and the Senate utilized all of its time in devising plans to kill the treaty of peace with Germany and the League of Nations covenant.

Owing to the announcement of Republican leader Mondell that no important business would be transacted during the last days of the session the bulk of his cohorts in the House took him at his word and scampered for home, first thoughtfully drawing the mileage fees that they feared might be lost to them because of the democratic desire to have Congress achieve some real constructive legislation before the convening of the special session on Dec. 1.

On passing the legislative jodge-podge known as the Esch railroad bill, the House Republicans began to filter out of Washington, being "at liberty to go home and secure that very brief vacation which they are so richly entitled," as Representative Morell gravely expressed it. Mondell added to his reputation for unconscious humor by asserting in a prepared statement and Republican "achievements" that no Congress in American history has more courageously, consistently and continuously addressed itself to or more faithfully performed the duties and responsibilities placed upon it than this session now drawing to a close. It might be noted that Mr. Morell did not review his "achievements" in a speech on the floor of the House but took the more prudent form of inserting them in the Congressional record thereby risking no interruption or corrections.

The congressional "achievement" consist of only a few of the constructive measures recommended by President Wilson some "popgun" tariff bills that were denounced by Senator Penrose as carelessly drawn and unscientific and held up in the Senate, and the Esch railroad bill that apparently stands little chance of passing in the upper house in anything resembling its present form. Meanwhile Jim, when the President stated he would return the railroads to their owners, is approaching an six months till has produced a bill that stands a chance of passing Congress or receiving the President's signature.

OUT O' ORDER STOMACHS

Indigestion, Acidity, Sourness and Gases ended with "Pape's Diapepsin"

The moment you eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin all the lumps of indigestion, pain, sourness, heartburn and belching of gases, due to acidity vanish truly wonderful!

Millions of people know that it is needless to be bothered with indigestion, dyspepsia or a disorderly stomach. A few tablets of Pape's Diapepsin neutralize acidity and give relief at once—no waiting! Buy a box of Pape's Diapepsin now! Don't stay dyspeptic! Try to regulate your stomach so you can eat favorite foods without causing distress. The cost is so little. The benefit so great.

"THE NAUGHTY WIFE"

Selwyn and Company have given over another. That was the consent of opinion after the opening of "The Naughty Wife," the hilariously funny farce which comes to the opera house Friday evening, Nov. 28. The truth of the matter is that the comedy was most deserved, no one firm of managers have produced more successful farces than Selwyn and Company. In some uncanny fashion they have the knack of doing that sort of play in just the way the public wants it done.

First came "Twia Beds" then the dearly booking engagement of "Fair
Woman and Warner" and now "The Naughty Wife."

One secret of the farces produced under the management of Selwyn and Company is the excellence of the cast that has always been chosen to present it. "The Naughty Wife" is no exception to the rule, and, Bolva
Greenwood, Gordon Eldred, Gertrude Walters, Harry Keen, Irma Heid and others to whom have been instructed the leading roles, are all known for their ability as farceurs.
The seat sale opens Tuesday.

THE PATHETIC STORY OF EVANGELINE

Here is the story of Longfellow's immortal "Evangeline" coming here in pictures today:

The tale of "Evangeline," Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's immortal poem, was told by a father to his daughter and her fiance when they were on the brink of a lover's quarrel. The story ran as follows:

The little village of Grand-Pre lay in the fruitful valley in Acadie, home of the happy. It was indeed a peaceful settlement, peopled by farmer folk and located amid beautiful surroundings.

Benedict Bellefontaine was the wealthiest farmer of Grand-Pre. With him, directing his household, gentle Evangeline lived, his child and the pride of the village. Though she had many suitors, she accepted as betrothed Gabriel, son of Basil, the blacksmith.

All went happily in Acadie till, in Halifax the climax of a hundred years of conflict between the English and

GLAD TO TESTIFY

Says Watoga Lady, "As To What Cardui Has Done For Me, So As To Help Others."

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly . . . Sometimes would go a month or two, and I had terrible headache, backache, and bearing-down pains, and would just drag and had no appetite. Then . . . it would last . . . two weeks, and was so weakening and my health was awful.

"My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle; so kept it up till I took three . . . I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui. I am married now and have 3 children.

"Have never had to have a doctor for female trouble, and just resort to Cardui. I need a tonic. I am glad to testify to what it has done for me, so as to help others."

NC-132

Acadian boatmen were traveling, Gabriel and his voyageur friends passed her in a canoe. But angel of God, there was nothing to awake the slumbering maiden.

Soon Evangeline awoke with a start.

"Oh, Father Felician!" she cried. Something says in my heart that near me Gabriel wanders."

Father Felician consoled her as best he could.

Gabriel's journeying led through adventurous regions. The wagon train with which he was travelling was attacked by Indians, and a terrific battle followed.

Meanwhile Evangeline wandered, searching for Gabriel. Fair was she and young when hope began its long journey. Faded was she and old when it ended in the city founded by Penn, the apostle.

The long-hoped-for reunion came at last when Gabriel, as one of the victims of pestilence, sought refuge in the almshouse where Evangeline was a sister of mercy. Happiness came at last, only to be ended by Gabriel's death.

The voice of the father, who was reading the poem, faltered as he reached the closing lines. But the sweethearts' quarrel was ended.

PRESIDENT BACKS RED CROSS SEALS

President Wilson has given his endorsement to the 1919 Red Cross Christmas Seals campaign by which $6,500,000 is to be raised for the fight against tuberculosis in the United States. This year a total of 650,000,000 of these little Red Cross seals will be offered for sale to provide the necessary funds for the nation-wide educational and preventive campaign which will extend through 1920, and of this number 13,000,000 seals have been assigned to Kentucky. A. R. Burnam, of Richmond, has charge of the sales in the eighth district.

The President's endorsement and good wishes for success of the sale are expressed in a letter to Dr. Chas. J. Matfield, managing director of the National Association, in which the President says:

Allow me to express my deep interest in the work of the National Tuberculosis Association. I am very much interested to learn of the effort of the association to raise the sum of six and a half million dollars that the State budgets may be financed for the coming year, and I write to wish the very best success of the effort.

Each state has an organization affiliated with the National Association. In Kentucky this association is under the direction of Dr. J. S. Lock, executive secretary, and the campaign for the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals is in charge of Captain M. B. Thewatt, formerly an officer in the United States Army, whose officers are located in the Republic building, Louisville, and who will be glad to furnish any information to Kentuckians interested in the fight on tuberculosis.

The sale of seals begins throughout the nation December 1 and will be pushed until the quotas of the states are completed, but it is hoped by the promoters that the campaign can be completed successfully in ten days. Ninety-two per cent of the amount realized from the sale of the seals in each state remains in the state where they are sold.

Col. E. H. Taylor, Jr., of Frankfort, Ky., took first on young herd, third and seventh on calf herd, sixth on produce of dam and second on get of sire.

J. N. Caniden, of Versailles, and John W. Vanatta, of Lafayette, Ind., also won places in these big groups.

In the annual sale of Herefords an average of $1,133 was paid for 80 head. The highest price was $5,250, paid for a heifer by J. R. Maywood, of Chicago. Good prices were paid for such stock from the Ohio Valley as went in the sale. The cattle were taken by breeders from widely separated parts of the country.

Mr. Fishel appeared in opposition to the petition. He explained that he had invested approximately $10,000 in electrical equipment for his poultry farm, comprising elaborate lighting system for his hen houses. "It has been demonstrated," Mr. Fishel asserted, "that hens by being kept awake increase eggs production
